

TO EXPEDITE CONSIDERATION OF PEACE PACT

BRIDGE PARTY AT CITY HALL TUESDAY NIGHT

Visitors Took Part in Discussion of Advantageous Sites.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Received petitions favoring Galena, Peoria and Monroe avenues as sites for a proposed new bridge across Rock river, and after hearing arguments presented by a number of citizens, deferred further action on the question until next week.

Confirmed appointment of Jason C. Ayres, William F. Hogan, Amos H. Bosworth and George A. Campbell as members of Library Board.

Issued a voucher for $5,000 to Gund & Graham on Everett street pavement.

Did not mention strike of Oakwood cemetery employees, on the ground that the condition existing is a labor situation and not a question similar to the recent pleas of the policemen and firemen, who were sworn into the city's service.

Last evening's session of the city council resolved itself into a first-class bridge party a very short time after the mayor had called the meeting to order. The members of the council were not the only ones to participate in the game as several representative business men and interested citizens were present to hear and express their opinions on the matter of where the proposed new bridge across Rock river should be located.

Mayor Mark D. Smith opened the discussion with a short talk in which he expressed his own views. He appeared to favor the Peoria avenue location for a new bridge and gave his reasons. He stated that in order to build a new bridge at Galena avenue, it would possibly require two years for construction and that added to the price of building a new structure the city would be at an expense of about $50,000 to care for transportation across the river. He explained that an expenditure of about $20,000 he believed that the present structure could be placed in such condition as to meet all requirements and at the same time be a credit to the city.

"A bridge at Peoria avenue would care for the greater bulk of the heavy and slow moving traffic," said the mayor, "while the pedestrians and autos would in all probability continue to use the Galena avenue bridge. With all fairness to the people of Dixon, I believe that no time should be lost in putting the present Galena avenue bridge into the very best possible condition and at the same time, proceed along such lines that would give the city two bridges across the river."

Others who were present voiced their sentiments as follows:

"Dixon would be greatly benefited by two bridges and would have benefited many years ago had there been more than one crossing over Rock river. The Galena avenue bridge is located in the east part of the town and persons crossing the bridge must go to the east end of town to get across the river. Many who are employed in our local industries cross the Illinois Central bridge almost every day in the year, winter and summer taking their lives in their hands and for many reasons a bridge at Monroe avenue would be a great benefit not only to the city but the working people who cross the river each day on their way to and from their employment."—Dr. W. C. McWehly.

Lee County Pill Dispensers Won Contest

About 200 druggists and their families attended the annual picnic of the Tri-County Druggists' association held at Lowell Park yesterday. The day was an ideal one for the occasion and the program was carried out without a flaw. In the baseball contest, the Lee county druggists won from Ogle county in the five inning game played in the morning. After dinner, the winners of the morning game were pitted against the druggists from Whiteside county and again the Lee county team came out victorious.

Bank Teller Saves $150.00 By Ruse; Bandit Shoots Self

Washington, Aug. 13.—A holdup man, entering the banking room of the Munsey Trust company in the heart of the uptown business section today, pointed two pistols at a teller, demanded $150.00 and then after firing one shot at a clerk, turned a pistol on himself. He shot himself in the jaw and was taken to a hospital.

Two money orders, issued at Defiance and Toledo, O., were found in the holdup's clothing. When he demanded the money, the teller first making a show of counting bills, then dropped behind his counter as the robber fired a bullet that pierced the coat of a clerk nearby. The bullet the robber intended for himself went through his jaw and then shattered a plate glass window.

The man told the police his name was John E. Fetzer, 31 years old, a mechanic of 116 East Street, Defiance, and that his uncle, Charles R. Fetzer, at the same address, could tell "why he couldn't get ahead." He came here today from New York.

POSTMASTER HAS NO INFORMATION REGARDING FOOD

Is Awaiting Instructions Concerning Sale of Army Supply.

No word has been received at the Dixon postoffice as to what provision is being made for Dixon residents to secure army food through this department. Postmaster William Hogan has been anticipating some definite word and instructions from the postoffice department for several days, but announced this morning that he had received none.

According to matter made public by the postal department at Washington, the food can be sent to consumers by parcel post. It was conjectured here that the surplus army food will be handled in the same manner as shipments from mail order houses. In the latter case an individual places an order and shipment is made direct to the purchaser through mail channels.

In their effort to beat the high cost of living many people in Dixon and vicinity are waiting anxiously for some definite plan by which this food may be secured.

The bolshevik wireless message reads: "In the direction of Zhmerinka, we have abandoned Vinnitsa. The enemy has occupied Lutsk."

Withdrawal of bolsheviks from Vinnitsa indicates that the Rumanians and anti-bolsheviks have forced the bolsheviks to retire from the line of the river Danister in northeastern Tesserabia.

It was not known today when the notes would be presented to the supreme council.

TROOPS CHECK BOLSHEVISM

Bucharest, Sunday, Aug. 10.—(Delayed)—The only thought of the Rumanian government in ordering its troops to enter Budapest, Premier Bratiano explained to the correspondent today, was to help the allied armies suppress bolshevism and to restore order.

"While we were awaiting the arrival of allied troops, the bolsheviks attacked the Rumanian troops on the Transylvanian front. After several days of hard fighting, in which Rumania received no material help from the allies, the bolshevik forces were beaten decisively," the premier said. "The so-called government of Bela Kun was overthrown, although at heavy sacrifices on the part of the Rumanian army. In order to render effective the Rumanian troops occupied Budapest and restored order where only anarchy had prevailed."

TRAFFIC MAY BE NORMAL IN WEEK, OFFICIALS THINK

Atlanta District Shopmen Vote to Call Off Walkout.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 13.—Wage increases for railroad employees will be considered by the railroad administration immediately after the last of the striking shopmen have returned to work, Director General Hines said today. Requests for increases are expected to come from all of the fifteen railroad unions which have not yet presented demands.

Mr. Hines said the problem of freight rates was "inextricably bound up" with the question of wage advances, indicating that the long expected advance in rates probably would not fully develop until the wage demands were settled.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 13.—Calling off of the federated railway shopmen's strike in the Atlanta, Ga., district caused railroad officials today to predict that the entire rail system of the country would be operating at normal within a week.

Reports from various parts of the country today showed that striking shopmen were returning to work pending settlement of their wage demands. In the Chicago district, however, there was no break in the ranks of the strikers.

U. S. MAY SEIZE HOARDED FOODS NOW IN CHICAGO

Tons of Stored Goods Likely to Be Sold to Consumers.

BULLETIN

Jacksonville, Fla., Aug. 13.—More than a million eggs, hundreds of thousands of tins of canned foods and 27,500 pounds of sugar were seized here today in a raid on wholesale food warehouses and cold storage plants by federal officers.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 13.—Eighty-four thousand dozen eggs stored with the Atlantic Ice & Produce corporation here for the account of Morris & Co., Chicago, were seized today by the United States district attorney. Seizure was made under libel proceedings in the federal court which charged that the eggs were unlawfully stored for the purpose of unreasonably increasing prices.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 13.—It was learned today that the United States district attorney's office has under consideration a plan to seize all the foodstuffs stored in the city which, under the federal food control act, may be classified as "hoarded" and offer it for sale to consumers. The United States bureau of markets has reported that there are thousands of tons of butter, eggs, fish, poultry and meat in Chicago cold storage warehouses which may come under this classification.

No decision will be reached until District Attorney Charles F. Cline returns from Washington.

Under the federal laws persons convicted of hoarding food may be punished by two years imprisonment, a fine of $5,000 or both.

The plan under consideration is said to contemplate the seizure of these large quantities of food stuffs now in the hands of manufacturers, dealers, brokers and speculators and to prosecute the offenders later.

MILLION ASKED OF CONGRESS.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 13.—Appropriations aggregating nearly $1,000,000 with which to help carry out the president's suggestions for reducing the cost of living were asked of congress today by the commerce and labor departments.

The department of commerce asked for $419,000 to be used in an endeavor to guarantee full weight and measure on all foodstuffs, ice, coal and other commodities and in standardizing staple grades of commodities by eliminating the less useful ones, thus eliminating waste.

The department of labor asked for $475,000 for the employment of nineteen experts, 200 special agents and a number of clerks.

CUT SURPLUS FOOD PRICE

Washington, Aug. 13.—To meet reductions recently made by retailers, a new scale of prices for surplus foodstuffs was put into effect today by the war department. Roast beef was reduced from $2.15 to $1.90 per six pound can; bacon from 35 to 31 cents per pound and No. 3 cans of beans from 11 to 9¢. Prices on other items were reduced in proportion.

"The secretary of war," said the announcement, "has approved the policy of revising war department quotations from time to time to keep these prices below those charged by retailers for similar commodities."

MINERS' STRIKE IS ABOUT OVER, OFFICIAL SAYS

President of Union is of Optimistic Mind Over Situation.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 13.—Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois miners' union, today predicted the early end of the miners' strike movement.

Farrington's forecast was made in the face of the meeting announced for today at Belleville where delegates from strike affected districts will attempt to add converts to the position that the present state officers are "autocratic." Many districts, it was stated, ignored the request to send delegates to Belleville.

Five Idle Mines Working.

"Five mines in the Belleville district, idle yesterday because of the strike went back to work today," said Farrington. "Twelve mines in the Peoria district also went back this morning and only three mines in the Springfield district are shut down due to disaffection among the men."

President Farrington stated that all of the mines in Franklin, Williamson, Saline and Jackson counties, where the bulk of Illinois coal is mined, were working in addition to all of the mines in the Danville and Northern fields.

At a mass meeting here tonight, President Farrington and other state officials will speak in justification of their position against "wildcat" strikes. Miners who started to work at the Woodside mine here this morning were slugged by strikers.

PANA MINERS DISAPPROVE.

Peoria, Ill., Aug. 13.—In response to an appeal from John L. Lewis, acting international president of the United Mine Workers of America, 2,000 miners at a meeting here this morning voted not to join the strike movement to oust Illinois miners' officials.

The strike is in defiance of orders of state officials of the United Mine Workers. Strike leaders claim 60,000 miners are out in Illinois.

FEDERAL CONTROL OF COLD STORAGE URGED IN SENATE

Sen. McKellar Asserts It is Sure Means of Lowering H. C. L.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Washington, Aug. 13.—Federal regulation of cold storage of food was urged in the senate today by Senator McKellar, democrat of Tennessee as a certain means of reducing the cost of living and as the only remedy for "the most outrageous piece of profiteering that can be imagined."

Speaking in support of his bill, first introduced in 1913 and now as reintroduced before the senate interstate commerce sub-committee considering high cost of living recommendations of President Wilson, Senator McKellar said if the bill had been passed in 1913, he felt sure the present conditions as to excessive living cost would not exist.

Charge Against Packers.

The meat packers were charged by the Tennessee senator with using cold storage facilities to fix food prices. Explaining his bill Senator McKellar said it would limit the time foods could be held in cold storage and has been vigorously opposed by the packers.

"Heretofore I have been unable to get any action on this bill," said Mr. McKellar, "but I am constrained to believe that under existing conditions we will get action at this time. My bill does not fetter cold storage in any way but it regulates it so that the people can get the very best benefits out of it."

LOWDEN WELCOMES MARINES

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 13.—In a brief statement today, Governor Lowden welcomed back to Illinois, members of marine organizations who fought in France and elsewhere.

HITCHCOCK MAY FORCE VOTE IF SENATE DELAYS

Committee Agrees That Early Action Will Be Attempted.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Washington, D. C., Aug. 13.—At a stormy session today the senate foreign relations committee agreed to expedite consideration of the peace treaty. Re-reading of disputed sections and the consideration of possible amendments will begin tomorrow.

Senator Hitchcock, Nebraska, ranking democrat of the committee, was understood to have told the committee that unless there was early committee action an attempt might be made to force a vote on the treaty in the senate.

Chairman Lodge and others were understood to have expressed assent to the proposal to hasten the committee's consideration, but Senator Fall, republican, New Mexico, was said to have taken the position that any precipitate action would be impossible.

During the debate which was in executive session, it was reported members had a bitter argument, Senator Fall, republican, declaring that Senator Hitchcock and others had questioned the motives of the republicans and made unfair reflections on the committee's course. Senator Hitchcock was said to have replied with equal vigor.

It was said Senator Hitchcock told the committee there was an increasing demand in the senate and throughout the country that the treaty be disposed of and that he expressed the belief that virtually every senator already had made up his mind how he would vote. Senator Lodge is understood to have replied that he also favored action as soon as practicable, but that so far there had been no available delay in the treaty's consideration.

Fall Opposes Haste

Senator Fall gave it as his opinion that to hasten ratification would be unwise as settlements to which the United States would be asked to assent still were to be determined in other treaties not yet in the hands of the senate.

The discussion in the committee was interrupted as related to the insistence for action by the group of republican senators who have agreed on a reservation program, which they also believe will have the ultimate assent of the democratic leaders. They also expect that in their plan they will have the cooperation also of Chairman Lodge.

HEARINGS ARE COMPLETED

Washington, Aug. 13.—Its hearings on the peace treaty completed, the senate foreign relations committee turned its attention to Mexican and Colombian questions today while in the senate also the plan of leaders was to lay aside temporarily the issues of the treaty fight and take up other business.

Within a few days it is expected there will be a conference of the reservation advocates with Senator Lodge and other republicans. Should a score or more come to an agreement on reservations, it is believed negotiations will begin with democratic leaders with a view to finding a middle ground on which the treaty can be ratified with reservations in the near future. So far, however, the administration forces have shown no sign of abandoning their fight for unreserved ratification.

Let Contracts for Two Sewers Today

The board of local improvements this morning let the contracts for the construction of two sewers in the city, covered by local improvement ordinances 188 and 191. Nick Santucci, of Rockford, was the lowest bidder and the contracts were let to him.

The estimated cost of work on this improvement was $1,827.94 and the contractor's bid was for $1,823.36. The bids on the Oak Court sewer on Fifth street covered by ordinance 190 were rejected as being too high. The Jackson avenue sewer, covered by ordinance 191, was estimated at $2,111.40, the bid being $2,243.20.

U. S. AIR SQUADRON MAY STOP IN DIXON, LT. DOWNING THINKS

Dixon Officer Writes of Great Coast-to-Coast Flight.

In a letter, in which he says he expects to resign from the United States Aviation Service (in which he saw service in France) soon, coming home sometime in September, Lt. B. Frank Downing sends The Telegraph the following story concerning the trip of the All-America Pathfinders, due to leave Hempstead Field soon. Explaining the preparations for the flight Lt. Downing writes:

"They have some fine equipment, new stuff which has come in the past three weeks. They expect to make the trip as outlined in six months time, but we think eight to twelve will be nearer it. They are a fine bunch of fellows, and I think they will perhaps pass over Dixon either going or coming back. I will be glad when they start as they have kept us (especially me) working overtime equipping them for the trip.

"They start tearing down the buildings at Camp Miller this week and the flying fields here will be discontinued soon—all excepting perhaps one and that will be open, according to present plans, for perhaps a year on a very small scale."

Story Of Flight.

The story of the flight, sent by the Dixon lieutenant, is:

The All-American Pathfinders, with a flight of nine modern type Curtiss biplanes, twenty-two commissioned officers and eighty enlisted men, will leave Hazelhurst Field, Mineola, L. I., Wednesday, Aug. 13, for an aerial pilgrimage of education, study and recruiting for the War Department throughout the United States.

This naval journey will end at San Francisco, after stops at 171 cities in fifteen different States. This flight will be in command of Major Ora M. Baldwin of the United States Army Air Service. The official announcement of the project made public yesterday said:

"Only a small percentage of the people of the United States have any idea of what an airplane in flight looks like and a very much smaller percentage have any idea of how an aero squadron in action is operated and maintained away from a fixed base, so Uncle Sam is about to start a Nation-wide campaign of education along practical lines to show the people the actual workings of an aero squadron and at the same time to use this campaign as a means for recruiting for all branches of the military service.

"The work of conducting this campaign will be carried on by the War Department, and on Wednesday, Aug. 13th, a complete aero squadron is to leave Hazelhurst Field, Mineola, L. I., and proceed on the most extensive, spectacular and instructive pathfinding ever undertaken in this country.

"This outgoing tour extending all the way from Mineola to San Francisco embraces stops at 171 cities in fifteen States and covers 4,183 air miles. Base stops are scheduled for the following cities along the itinerary: Philadelphia, Harrisburg and Pittsburgh, Pa.; Coshocton and Columbus, O.; Indianapolis, Ind.; Effington, Ill.; St. Louis, Mo.; Rantoul, Ill.; Chicago, Ill.; Milwaukee and Madison Wis.; Winona, Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minn.; Fargo, Jamestown and Bismarck, N. D.; Miles City, Billings, Great Falls and Helena, Montana;

Wallace, Idaho, Spokane, Seattle and Tacoma, Wash.; Portland, Salem, Eugene and Jacksonville, Ore.; Reading, Sacramento and San Francisco, Cal. The unit has already completed the aerial mapping, photographing and other work between Mineola and Pittsburg and the first jump from Mineola will be direct to Columbus, O., where they are scheduled to arrive Aug. 18.

Each Man Specially Adapted.

"This recruiting unit will be known as the All-American Pathfinders and will consist of twenty-two commissioned officers and eighty enlisted men, as compared with the usual personnel of thirty officers and 250 enlisted men to accomplish the same amount of work in consequence of which the task before those selected is anything but an easy one, and the officers and enlisted men who are to be included are specially selected, each for a specific task for which the individual is particularly adapted by reason of extensive experience and training.

"The duties and functions to be performed by this organization are manifold and many of the functions are new and of great importance both to the military and the Commonwealth.

"The primary purposes in sending forth this organization, which is the first of its kind in this country, are: Recruiting for every arm of the military service, pathfinding and establishing of aerial mailways for use in carrying government mails over definitely plotted and mapped routes, selection, location and establishing of landing fields along these aerial mailways; obtaining, cataloging and recording detailed military information for the air service; the recommendations for placing of steel hangers at certain points along aerial routes by the government upon the accomplishment by certain municipalities in furnishing Class I landing fields, the photographing and plotting from the air of all these municipal landing fields along these aerial routes, the observation and testing of aerial radio phones and the compiling of data with reference to the advantage of establishing radio stations along aerial routes and the final making of a continuous and accurate photographic map of these aerial routes from the beginning to the terminus of the route to be traversed.

"In addition to the above matters of routine duty an extensive campaign of education along aeronautical lines will be carried on with special reference to the development of aviation for commercial uses.

"The organization goes forth to perform these functions with the most modern equipment available and carries all its own tentage, mess outfit, etc., and is really a complete military post moving from one base to the next as its various duties progress.

Big Convoy of Cars on the Ground.

The motor convoy consists of fourteen one and one-half ton trucks, five standard Liberty five-ton trucks, three staff observation cars, four touring cars, motorcycles, engineer corps.

"The organization has been divided into sections, each performing a separate function. They are: Headquarters and Advance Section, which will be the executive head for the unit and will also arrange for all base stops prior to the actual arrival of the organization at points along its itinerary; aerial routes, mapping and landing field section, which will compile, catalogue and record all important and necessary aerial information, plot and record maps and aerial mail ways, select and establish landing fields, indicate locations and arrange for the furnishing of steel hangers at certain base points by the government.

"The Balloon and Airship Section carries six specially constructed balloons known as the propaganda type. At base stops these will be flown, and in addition this section will have with it for exhibition purposes a full size type "R" observation balloon, which will be inflated at each base stop so that the public may see and examine the type of lighter than air craft that played such an important part in the late war.

Carry Complete Searchlight Unit.

"The Searchlight and Field Lighting Section which is being operated by the Engineer Corps of the United States Army is carrying a searchlight unit complete, which is of the 60-inch anti-aircraft dishpan type. This searchlight was developed by the Corps of Engineers during the late war, was used successfully against the Germans, and is the most powerful and brilliant light in the world, having a strength of from 250 to 300 millions candle power. The illuminating range of this light for effective night pathfinding work is 15,000 feet (three miles) and the beam thrown into the air by this powerful lamp can be seen by a plane in the air—weather permitting—for a distance of 110 miles.

"The convoy consists of a train more than half a mile long and will move on a schedule definitely planned as to mileage and motor performance.

across Rock river is not needed is beyond belief. I feel that without a doubt the people of this city would vote for a new bridge. I personally favor the locating of the new bridge at Peoria avenue, but am opposed to doing away entirely with the Galena avenue structure. If the Peoria avenue site is not a desirable one, I believe that the practical thing to do is to place the new bridge west of Galena avenue."—E. J. Countryman.

"Two bridges will be a very expensive proposition for Dixon. I favor the repair of the old bridge, making it safe and presentable or the building of a new bridge at Galena avenue."—E. N. Howell.

"I am willing that Dixon should have two bridges but feel that one thing should be done at a time. I believe that the right thing to do is to build a new bridge at Galena or repair the Galena avenue bridge to make it safe and then go after a new bridge. Seventy-five per cent of the people residing on the north side of the river live east of Galena avenue and that is the logical site for a bridge crossing. Building material is very high in price at this time and probably later the expense of building a new bridge would not be so great."—Col. W. B. Brinton.

Suggests Moving Old One.

"I will concede that we ought to have another bridge across Rock river at Dixon in time to come. Why not move the present structure down to Monroe avenue and then build a new bridge on the Lincoln Highway crossing the river at Galena avenue."—John E. Moyer.

"I believe that we will all agree that a new bridge on Peoria avenue or some other avenue would relieve the bulk of heavy traffic that is now crossing the Galena avenue bridge. I am for an additional bridge in Dixon and care not whether it be located on Peoria, Monroe, Hennepin or College avenue."—C. H. Keyes.

Claims Monroe Best Site.

Dr. McWehly presented the petition for Monroe avenue and made a very strong appeal for the location of a bridge there. His appeal was based on the grounds that it would be of the greatest benefit to industrial Dixon, clearing that the bulk of Dixon's industrial interests were in the west end of Dixon and that a bridge at Monroe avenue would do everything for Dixon that a bridge at Peoria avenue would do and a great deal more.

R. A. Rodesch declared to the council that the present tax rate in Dixon is about up to the limit and that at the present time we do not need a new bridge.

The men who favor Galena avenue also brought forth the argument that in case a new bridge is built west of Galena avenue its construction will exhaust the bonding capacity of the city and that before this condition is remedied the Galena avenue bridge, even though repaired now, will be worn out and there will be no money to build a new one at Galena. The building of a bridge elsewhere than Galena would result, therefore, they claim, in the ultimate closing up of the Galena avenue bridge and the Lincoln Highway at this point, leaving Dixon with but one bridge and that one far west of the center of travel.

Palmer Makes Suggestion.

Commission of Finance F. J. Palmer took the floor to suggest that the condition of the city's finances called for considerable caution in this matter and he made a motion that the city attorney, Robert Scott, be directed to investigate the proposition of asking county aid on the matter of repairing the Galena avenue bridge. Commissioner Palmer said that he believed the law would require the county to pay half of the cost of repairing the Galena avenue bridge, since the cost would run over er 12 per cent on the city's taxable property.

Of the three petitions presented to the council, Mayor Smith said that he believed the Peoria avenue and the Galena avenue petitions were about a draw.

No Action Taken.

Thus ended the discussion on the bridge proposition with no formal action to be taken and the matter will be brought up again at the meeting next week, at which time the members of the council will have looked over the three petitions that were filed last evening favoring Galena, Peoria and Monroe avenues as sites for a proposed new bridge.

Mayor Mark Smith appointed two new members on the public library board and re-appointed two who have served but whose terms have expired. J. C. Ayres and William F. Hogan were re-appointed and Amos Bosworth and George A. Campbell were appointed to fill vacancies.

The council went into a short session as the board of local improvements and voted to issue a voucher in the sum of $5,000 to the Gund & Graham company for the work now in progress on Everett street. The letting of bids for the construction of a sanitary sewer as provided in local improvement ordinances 188, 190 and 191, was discussed and the board adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning to further investigate the bids.

The closing of the Cort and Cohan's followed the arrival from New York of Francis Wilson, president of the equity association of actors and artists. As soon as he had communicated with other officers of the association in the casts at the two play houses the members gave notice to the managers they would not appear at the night performance.

$309,650 is Paid in Teachers' Pensions

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Springfield, Ill., Aug. 13.—Annuities paid out by the state teachers' pension fund for the year 1918-1919 totaled $309,650, according to figures just compiled by R. O. Clarida, secretary of the fund. A balance remained in the treasury, July 1, 1919 the end of the fiscal year, of $244,354.

A total of 863 teachers are drawing annuities, according to the report, 773 of whom are fifty years or more of age and have taught 25 years, entitling them to the full annuity of $400 annually. The rest are teachers who have taught for fifteen years and are disabled for further service.

Since the pension law became effective in 1915, a total of 2,700 have elected to become contributors to the fund. Fifteen thousand teachers, who began teaching since July 1, 1915, when the law became operative are compulsory contributors.

For the year ending June 30, 1919, funds amounting to $151,907 were collected through the state tax of one cent of a mill; contributions received from teachers totaled $126,112; interest on loan assessments, $24,556; and interest on loans or from investments, $14,234. This brings the total receipts for the year 1918-1919 to more than $316,000.

ANIMALS NOT ALONE IN "SKIN" PROCESS TO PROVIDE SHOES

So Hints Shoe Manufacturer, Explaining High Prices.

Chicago.—Formerly the hide dealers and leather men contented themselves with skinning the animals. I've a suspicion they've broadened out of late. It looks to me as if the American people are being skinned a little."

A. M. Legg, president of the A. M. Legg Shoe company, shoe manufacturers of Pontiac, thus replied when asked.

"Why are shoes so high?" "You'd learn a lot about who's making money if you'd look up the quotations of some of the big hide and leather corporation stocks, today and back in 1914 and 1915," he added. "Take a slant at the stock, common and preferred of the American Hide and Leather company and see what you find out."

The Stock Market Story

On Aug. 6, 1915, American Hide and Leather common stock was quoted at 7 1/2; preferred was quoted at 35 on the New York Stock Exchange. It varied only a few points up and down for a period of several months.

Yesterday American Hide and Leather common closed at 32; preferred at 119. So much for the story of the stock market.

Mr. Legg gave some figures on the prices he is paying for leather, which will be used to make the shoes Chicago folk will buy this winter and next spring.

"I was just down to a leather horse," he said, "and bought some black calf-skin. I paid $1.20 a square foot for it. That is double what was asked ninety days ago. It is three times what I paid before the war—yes, more than three times. It takes three and three-quarter feet of this to make the uppers for one pair of woman's shoes. It costs as much more to put on the soles, the linings, the linings, and the trimmings. Can you figure what those shoes will cost when I get a fair profit and the retailer gets a fair profit—allowing us the smallest fair margin?"

Going Higher

"Here's another leather—a kid—I use a great deal of it. I formerly went into a pair of shoes that retailed for about $4.50. Last November, after the armistice was signed I paid 26 cents a square foot for it—three and three-quarters square feet to a pair of uppers, remember, and in January it went to 59; then it went up as follows: February, 4 cents; March 55 cents; April 74 cents; today, 98 cents. Before the war I could buy a pair of good six inch soles for 1 cent a pair—have bought them as low as 16 cents.

"Now they cost 75 cents and are going higher. I know the retailers are now selling shoes for prices at which they will not be able to replace them for the latest increase in leather has not yet been passed onto the public."

Mr. Legg said the "novelties" in women's footwear were in a measure responsible for some of the high prices. "Many women buy shoes for style," he said, "not as a commodity they have to have. If we could eliminate the novelties—the changes in styles—there would be some cut in the cost of women's shoes."

"You see the odd colors and novel shapes come and go and the person who buys them while they are in style must pay for the unsold shoes. That goes on the bargain counter below cost after the fad has passed."

All Higher Now

With this explanation of the high cost of women's shoes Phil Selzer, boy or for the Boston Store agreed. He said, however, that no retail shoe dealer could replace his present stock of shoes at the price he was now retelling them.

"The shoes we are buying today," he said, "which will go on sale in winter are from $1 to $5 a pair higher than was the same quality when last we bought. Yet the public seems to want only the highest priced goods."

"In the cheap grades of working men's shoes the advance has been as marked as in the higher grades. Take boys' shoes—split leather frequently—shoes I bought six months ago for $1.50 now cost me $2.20. And that's the kind of shoe we retailed for about a dollar before the war."

Nobody to Blame

Glazed kid range as high as $1.30 and in shoe manufacturing circles today many manufacturers are worrying about a rumor that tanners in India from which a large percentage of goat skins come, are urging an export duty on their product.

Shoes are going up—all concerned in the industry agree—but retailers, manufacturers and peddlers weeping deny they are to blame.

Story of the Mirror.

From the twelfth to the fifteenth century small mirrors, carried in the pocket or attached to the girdle, were regarded as indispensable adjuncts to ladies' toilets. The pocket mirror was a circular plaque of polished metal fixed in a shallow box and covered with a lid.

Guardmen to Wear New Kind of Shoes

Washington, Aug. 13.—Because it was found that the men have been wearing shoes issued by the government at other times than when on duty, only field shoes with the fleshy side of the leather turned outward will be issued to national guard troops in the future or so long as the supply lasts, the war department announced today. The department had experienced considerable difficulty in keeping the guardmen supplied with footwear which resulted in an investigation by inspectors.

Editor Telegraph:—I notice mention made in The Telegraph of the Morrilltown bridge and this reminds me that Harmon's old time horsemanship, E. E. Rogers, broke through the bridge with cattle when driving across on his way to the Harmon herding grounds. This was in the very early 60's.

I used to haul still sloop from the distillery at the south end of the bridge for feeding purposes, until they reduced the quality to near the consistency of present United States beverages. Then I quit.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS.

ROSE TELLS SANDRA ALL THE HOME GOSSIP CHAUTER XV

Mrs. Gray met us at the door and welcomed us so nicely I felt that Rose must surely be jealous of my menage, even if I had not pleased her in my choice of a husband.

"Isn't she a dear! who is she?" Rose asked when we were alone.

"She is refined. If she were not she would not be here. Mr. Graham, Everett, is very particular."

Just then Hetty came in to help Rose unpack, so we said nothing more. But I could see that I had already made an impression upon Rose. But I forgot all such foolishness after luncheon when she told me all about home and home folks. Of father, mother, and the boys first; then of all the town boys and girls especially those I used to run around with.

I laughed until I cried over pranks of Buster and Toodles. They had not grown less mischievous, it seemed, since I left home. She told me mother missed me dreadfully, and that she and the other girls often went and sat with her awhile to talk about me.

Jack Denmore had married Cornelia Willets. And Bob Cushing was rushing May Ogden. Of course there might be nothing serious, but May was terribly sentimental, and Bob was of fully good looking, he didn't have a penny—was just a clerk in a store.

"Her mother tries to keep her from going with Bob, but May manages to see a lot of him," Rose said. "and I think May is right. At least I have always thought as she does. What is money or position compared to love?"

"You've read that somewhere. Rose Grandon! I know you have. It sounds exactly as if you were reading from a novel," I replied.

"No—I don't remember reading it. I might change my mind a little if I could have such a home as well, as this." Then with one of her quick changes:

"Has that Mr. Edmonds any money?" "I don't know—I guess so. He goes in our set—goes to all the expensive places, and all that sort of thing."

"Well, mother always said it was just as easy to like a man with money as one without. Perhaps she is right." Rose looked so serious as she made this wise remark that I burst out laughing. But I was really quite glad I had invited her, after I could not make myself feel quite so keen upon the subject of her marriage to Barrett as I had supposed I would. Someway I did not enjoy having her bring him into the conversation in the way she did. It was as though she had already decided to marry him.

We walked until about 3 o'clock, then I ordered the car and we took a long drive. I felt really happy. It was clever in me to send for Rose—it was ever so much pleasanter than staying alone.

We stayed out so late we fairly had to scramble ourselves into our clothes to be in time for dinner. But Rose looked lovely in a dainty rose colored evening dress. I put on one of my new blue ones and did my hair high, just as I had it in the attic—just a big soft swirl on the top of my head.

"It makes you look five years older," Rose said. Then "What a lovely dress!" "I hate blue. But Everett doesn't like me in other colors because of—my hair! I almost had said because he always saw his other wife wear blue."

"It is awfully becoming, but one time of one color all the time."

"Oh, I wear white with touches of blue! You see he buys me such beautiful things I shouldn't complain because he chooses the color." Someway I could resist what Everett did, but it was altogether different hearing someone else criticize him.

"I should say he did!" Rose replied heartily. "Why, there isn't a girl I know who has one-hundredth what you have. I guess you knew what you were doing after all if you did get married so young and if your husband is old."

"He isn't old—not a single bit! He's just old enough to have a position in business and society." I replied in my most grandiose manner, just as Hetty announced dinner.

Tomorrow—"Barrett Edmonds spends the evening with Rose and Sandra."

HOW NEWSPAPERS HELP BUSINESS.

That newspaper advertising is going a long way toward solving the problems of business reconstruction is shown by a review just issued by the Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper Publishers' association. Says the review:

"Immediately after the war a great increase in newspaper advertising was noticed. Each month it has continued and today it is not unusual for newspapers to report 100 percent increases in national advertising in line with the same period of 1918, and there is scarcely a newspaper anywhere that does not show tremendous gains.

"For a few months after the armistice was signed business men were asking whether or not this advertising would pay. Today they are wondering whether they can fill their orders and get help enough to run their factories.

"While there are still some evidences of hand-to-mouth buying and a disposition to 'play safe' in case of lowered prices, retail business has increased in a volume that seems to indicate an outlook for full speed ahead. A federal investigation into trade conditions just completed shows that the big retail stores in New York had a sixty-six percent increase in business during April and May over the corresponding months last year. Reports from Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia and other large cities indicate the same tremendous release of buying power.

"Many manufacturers of advertised products report that they are unable to fill demands and are running behind on orders.

"It is fair to say that newspaper advertising is responsible for a large part of this improvement in retail and wholesale business, and that the newspapers will render as notable a service in the readjustment period as they performed
during the war."

Their important and patriotic part in the winning of the war has enlarged in every way the usefulness of the newspapers of the United States. More people are reading today than ever before in the history of the country, and in this period of readjustment the same press will do much to compose differences which too often arise through misunderstanding and lack of appreciation of the other fellow's viewpoint.

Today the newspaper is an increasingly potent factor in business expansion and the advertising element in business success has long since been recognized as vital. It is the secret of the development of most winners in the business game.

HOPELESS FIGHT AGAINST THE DRY LAW.

"The Association Opposed to National Prohibitions" continues to go through the motions to do everything in the power of the liquor interests to finally defeat national prohibition. Notice the s in its name—it is not stated what other "prohibitions" the association is to attack.

Forty-five states have ratified the dry amendment, nine above the required number. Now this A. O. N. P. has picked out fifteen states in which to seek referendums in the hope that the people will be able to overturn the ratification by the legislatures. The association says that the fifteen states picked out have "the right of the referendum." If in ten of these fifteen states the legislative action should be turned down, then only thirty-five states would remain as ratifying, or one too few. Here are the fifteen states: Michigan, Ohio, Missouri, Arkansas, New Mexico, Colorado, Washington, Nebraska, California, Nevada, Maine, Oklahoma, Oregon, Utah and Idaho.

It will take time to put such referendums through, and time is a most valuable asset to the wets. Each day of time lost by them is showing the people of the whole country more and more the beneficial results coming everywhere from wartime prohibition, and showing that the predicted calamities are not materializing. There is no

BURGLARS I HAVE MET.

doubt that these referendums, if they are ever taken, will go over till 1920, probably to the fall of 1920. By that time the wets will stand to lose at least ten of the fifteen states instead of winning ten.

What chance will they have, for instance, in Nebraska, Ohio, Michigan and Missouri, which are four of the fifteen states they have picked out, and which also are four of the twelve states that have already ratified woman suffrage? These four of the fifteen certainly are lost to them. Who knows how many more of the eleven remaining states to which they are tying their hopes will ratify woman suffrage in the next few months?

They are dying hard. They would save a lot of money for a grand funeral if they would quit right now.

HOW FOOD PRICES ARE INFLATED

"That great quantities of food are held in storage, averaging one-fifth more than a year ago, is the revelation of the latest report from the federal trade commission. And the commission states that its figures do not take into account the government stocks now held, and some of which are soon to be put on the market.

The law of supply and demand is put out of the running, according to the report. Food prices are going up while these great reserve stocks are being withheld, apparently being held back "speculatively for a world demand which is not here, but which is expected when hunger-impelled strikes secure higher wages, with which higher food prices can be paid."

This last report is one of the strongest arrangements yet made of profiteers, and it ought to furnish good basis for the suits which the government is about to institute.

DRESSED FOR THE OCCASION.

Senator Capper of Kansas, speaking of a visit to the White House takes pains to describe the President's good clothes and sartorial makeup, and declares that "not in our time has any President been so punctilious as to dress."

The chances are that the President dressed for the occasion. He realized that he was to meet "the gentleman from Kansas" where the wheat crop is being harvested and the folks can afford to wear diamonds for buttons.

They talk about the busy little bee improving each shining hour, and the idea is a fine inspiration, but the fact is that the busy little squirt loafs all winter long.

Bryan a candidate for the presidency in 1920? Well, he would be all right as a candidate.

Mysterious Murder in Chicago Suburb

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Ill., Aug. 13.—A woman was in her handbag to be Mrs. E. L. Watkins. Her throat was cut several times and cuts on the hands indicated she had fought with her assailant. Residents along University avenue in the college town heard screams and telephoned the police. The woman was richly dressed and her purse containing a sum of money was found near the body.

Sterling Has Bridge Controversy on Hands

The Dixon city council is not alone in facing bridge problems. At Sterling yesterday the city commissioners met to open bids for the construction of a new bridge over the race at the foot of Locust street to replace the one partially wrecked by a high water several months ago, and they found but one bid awaiting them. Even that bid was faulty, in that it did not meet the conditions imposed by the engineers, and it was rejected.

Coal Men Charged With Attempting to Make Consumers Buy

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Aug. 13.—Representative Huddleston, democrat, Alabama, charged in the house today that the National Coal association had spent $50,000 for advertising space in 400 newspapers in "an effort to make the people buy coal now at exorbitant prices through belief of an impending shortage."

"Nothing except an act of congress," he said, "will stay this infamous attempt on the part of the coal operators to take advantage of suffering humanity next winter. I insist that congress pass such an act and take it out of the power of the operators to profiteer."
"There is no coal shortage and no labor shortage, but there is a shortage in common honesty on the part of the coal operators."

Congress Can Define Intoxicating Liquor

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Aug. 13.—To secure uniform and efficient administration and enforcement of the prohibition law congress clearly has the right to define what is intoxicating liquors the senate

In support of its contention, the subcommittee appended an elaborate brief, counsel for the anti-saloon league of America, citing many court decisions and precedents.

No reason was cited for adding the provision to permit home manufacture

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 13.—United left here today for Peoria to investigate charges of profiteering.

Reason's For Our GUARANTEE

NO. 1.

Peoria Manufacturers' and Merchants' Association

Peoria, Ill., July 25, 1919.

Mr. A. T. Scovill,
Sterling, Illinois.

Dear Mr. Scovill:—

The extreme scarcity of competent stenographers has been brought very forcibly to my attention in the last few months and it leads me to believe that perhaps the young men and women today are not taking advantage of the opportunity that is presented by securing a Business College training to fit themselves for the business world.

I say this to you particularly because I know the extremes that you have gone to in the past to turn out from the Sterling College competent and efficient workers.

Three years ago, in the capacity of Assistant Engineering Manager of the Root and Van Dervoort Engineering Company, Moline, Illinois, I was forced to call on you several times to secure stenographic help owing to the fact that schools in the immediate vicinity of Moline were not turning out competent help. You will recall that Ray O'Hara was one of the men whom you sent me and whom I believe entered a field of opportunity for which he is duly grateful.
Moline very well knows the caliber of the students you turned out. Brechbiel, Truckenbrod and others who came from your school are now in positions of responsibility in Moline institutions.

Here in Peoria at the present time we are unable to secure a sufficient number of competent office workers and it is an absolute fact that in many instances business houses are handicapped, due to this very condition.

I believe that if business executives would take more interest in the conduct of Business Colleges and Business Training Schools it would be more evident to the young man or woman seeking a life vocation that an unlimited opportunity is presented in this field.

Trusting that the Sterling College will adhere to the high standards it has set in the past and with every good wish, I am

Very truly yours,
L. E. ROARK,
Secretary.

WHAT FORMER STUDENTS SAY:

A few days ago I was awarded a promotion necessitating my removal to San Francisco, California, with all traveling expenses including railroad fare, Pullman and dining service and a salary of $2,350 a year. I cannot too forcefully recommend Brown's Sterling Business College to any young man or woman seeking a thorough and practical training, as I am responsible to this institution for the degree of success
so far obtained.

ROY KRUG, Ashton, Ill.
Certainly when one's income is doubled by a few months' training, there must be something worth while about that training. That is just what my course at Brown's has done for me.

WILLIAM M. NIPE,
Mt. Carroll, Ill.

The day I graduated from Brown's

I accepted, through the school, a position where my salary for one month equalled the sum I expended for my scholarship. I can most heartily recommend Brown's Business College of Sterling as "The School of Results."

MABEL MOELLER, Sterling, Ill.

Not only through appreciation of the interest you have shown in me but also because I know your school is as advertised, "The School of Results," I urge young people expecting to take a business course by all means to attend Brown's Sterling receive there is sure to bring them success, as it did myself.

Asquith Attempted to Start Campaign for Peace in 1917

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Berlin, Tuesday, Aug. 12.—(Delayed)—H. H. Asquith, then British premier, launched a "peace feeling" in August, 1917, according to a letter written by Frau Frieda Perlen, president of the Stuttgart branch of the international woman's league for peace and freedom, to the Freiheit. She quotes a letter she received that time from Jonkheer Jo-jong Van Beek En Donk, secretary of the Dutch anti-militarist league in which he informed her that Mr. Asquith had asked him to put the direct question to the German chancellor, saying that a "good answer would be of tremendous importance."

Reichstag Could Not Agree
The letter to Frau Perlen said it was thought that Mr. Asquith was ready for an understanding with the Reichstag should demonstrate it ruled the situation and really possessed power in Germany. This point it was said, would be carried if the majority of the Reichstag should succeed in bringing about an unequivocal official statement regarding Belgium. The letter begged her to do her utmost to induce the Reichstag to issue such a statement.

Van Beek said that the declaration of Dr. George Michaelis, then German imperial chancellor, relative to safeguarding boundaries had, as he conceived it, created an unfavorable impression abroad and declared that he wanted to establish whether the Reichstag would not make clear the German standing regarding Belgium.

Frau Perlen states she took the letter to members of the Reichstag who promised to present the matter before committees but she said:

"The leading men of the Reichstag parties were so weak against the government military dictatorship they were guilty of collapse."

Whole Family Follow Sons to War With "Jazz" Cure for Homesickness

Mother and Three Daughters—After Boys Had Gone to France—Decide They'll Go, Too

Form Rag-Time Orchestra and Are Driving Away the Blues of Thousands of Boys Overseas

When the two sons of Mrs. Elise Bolander, a musician, of Berkeley, Cal., went to war, the mother decided that the remainder of the family should go, too. The remainder of the family consisted of Mrs. Bolander and three daughters, Alice, Mabel and Pearl. They are all concert artists, and when the first call went out from the Y.M.C.A. for entertainers they enlisted as a unit.

Mrs. Bolander played the guitar and ukelele in this private quartet. Pearl played the cornet. Alice the drums, oboe, piano and accordion. Mabel the piano and clarinet. The result was the "jazziest" orchestra, so the boys said, that ever visited a cantonment.

For more than a year this group played the Y.M.C.A. circuit, visiting practically every camp in the country and playing to hundreds of thousands of men. They were not allowed to go across because of the two boys on the other side, but when the armistice was signed the request for overseas service, which they had had in for more than a year, was granted. They have been in France for several months, playing ragtime in camps and at the leave areas. They made their first appearance at the Pavilion, in Paris, and were an instantaneous success.

While the dough y is exacting, and wants his opera good when he does hear it, he more often wants ragtime, and this is the music that has helped the Y.M.C.A. drive away the A.E.F. malady of homesickness.

Great Demand for Ex-Service Youth

The campaign for the re-employment of ex-service men under the direction of Colonel Arthur Woods, assistant to the Secretary of War, is now bearing fruit. Employers are responding to the information and advice of the War Department about the coming shortage of labor and about the increased mental and physical efficiency of ex-service men, and are taking them on as fast as their respective industries warrant.

The Soldiers' Re-employment Bureau on Pearl street, New York, one of the many private organizations which has joined hands with government departments under Col. Woods' guidance to give employment to ex-service men in need of jobs, reports that it has a steady demand for electricians, helpers, pipe-fitters, plumbers, machine tool makers, dye makers, chauffeurs and auto-truck drivers, delivery men, book-keepers, clerks of all kinds, and salesmen.

Similar reports are also received from other re-employment centers and from the different welfare societies now doing re-employment work.

The building trade is also demanding more and more men now that the campaign to let out contracts for public works is well under way. The city of New York alone has, in the last few weeks, let out contracts for over $50,000,000 and the work on these contracts is well under way.

State is Policing "Whizz" Highway Now

The Lincoln highway pavement is now patrolled by officers from the office of the secretary of state, according to information from motorists, who say that the practice of speeding on the Lincoln highway and other pavements in the rural districts must be stopped. The state officers, it is said, are taking the license numbers of speeders.

Residents of the Lincoln highway say that some machines are driven so fast that the drive has been named Whizz trail. They say that they can from their doorstep see something better than the Elgin races every day. Life and limb and property is jeopardized, the complainants say.

Motorists who are for sane driving say that no machine should be driven at a speed of more than 20 miles an hour, and they say that they will support the state's campaign against speeders.

Some property owners on the highway favor placing bumps along the pavement as a sure preventive against speeding.

Future War Will Be Won in Air, Report of Aerial Mission

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Aug. 13.—Belief that future war will open with great aerial activity and that victory will incline to that belligerent able first to achieve and maintain its supremacy in the air was expressed by the special American aviation mission which has just submitted its report recommending concentration of air activities in this country, civilian, naval and military, under the direction of a new department whose head would hold a place in the president's cabinet. The mission, headed by Assistant Secretary of War Crowell and composed of some of the nation's leading aircraft development experts, has been studying the subject in Europe in conjunction with experts of the principal powers there and its views were based on information secured in months of study.

Baker Disproves Special Body
Secretary Baker late yesterday made public the report and at the same time announced he had disapproved of a recommendation for the creation of a department of aviation. He expressed the opinion the mission had "gone too far in suggesting a single centralized air service."

The report was divided into three parts dealing respectively with general organization, commercial development and technical developments.

In recommending the centralized control the missions urged that the department of aviation be charged with full responsibility for placing and maintaining the nation in the front rank in the development and utilization of aircraft for the national security and in the advancement of civil aerial transportation and communication.

W. Va. Governor to Oppose Plumb Plan

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Charleston, W. Va., Aug. 13.—Governor John Cornwell answered last night a communication from the federation of railway employees of the Chesapeake & Ohio system, criticizing his opposition to the Plumb plan of government ownership of railroads. The governor characterized the plan as "either sane or fair."

Governor Cornwell averred that should the public buy the roads and give them to the railroad men to manage, all other workers of public utilities would demand the same thing. Even the miners and farm laborers, he said, would demand similar management for the mines and farms. "Then we have," he said, "not socialism but chaos. They are trying to run things that way in Russia and we all know the result."

Expect 2,000 Women to Attend State U

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Urbana, Ill., Aug. 13.—Prediction that 2,000 women students will attend the University of Illinois this fall is made by Miss Ruby L. C. Mason, dean of women, who declares correspondence at her office from prospective women students has been three times as heavy this year than ever before.

Every room in the new residence hall for women at the University, which is to be opened for the first time this fall, has been engaged and there is a waiting list of sixty names. Miss Mason is now writing to many applicants for quarters in the building advising them to engage rooms elsewhere and not wait for rooms in the hall.

"I believe the opening of the new Residence Hall will be the most important event for the women of the university," Miss Mason said, "and eventually alter the whole social aspect of the school. Parents are more willing to send their daughter to college when she can live in a dormitory and I see no reason why we should not have more women students as our dormitory facilities increase."

Shots Are Fired as Strikebreakers Go Into Peoria Plant

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Peoria, Ill., Aug. 13.—A score of shots were fired at 8 o'clock this morning when 125 strike breakers, said to have been imported from Chicago and Johnston, Pa., were taken into the Keystone Steel and Wire Co. plant at South Bartonville.

The first shot was fired by one of the 25 special deputies, protecting the strike breakers under the personal direction of Sheriff Hines. The strikers returned the fire. Two men were reported wounded but the report could not be verified.

Attorney Charles W. Laporte, representative in the state legislature, and counsel for the Keystone company narrowly escaped injury when a brick, thrown by a woman through the automobile in which he was riding to the plant, a deputy drew a revolver and three truck loads of strikers were rushed through the gates a few seconds later. The firing started when the mob surged to the rear gates in an attempt to enter the plant.

Eight hundred Keystone employees have been on strike for a closed shop for six weeks.

GREECE MAY GET 'ENCHANTED ISLAND'

Washington.—Cyprus, fairy land of the Mediterranean, which Great Britain has been reported as standing ready to turn over to Greece, exemplifies a broom, for the fiction in Shakespeare's 'Othello' for which the island, in part, is the setting, is no stranger than the vivid drama of actual history enacted there," says a bulletin from the National Geographic Society.

"Richard Coeur de Lion wrested it from a ruler who had won it by forging letters in his monarch's name, after that ruler, Isaac Comnenus, has refused to let the Crusader's shipwrecked and seafaring love land there the first time she asked.

"Richard married, Berengaria there and went his way after turning over the island to a penniless adventurer, Guy de Lusignan, who founded a feudal state amongst spice gardens and silken luxury" and thus established a dynasty which has been described as the most romantic in European history.

"Cyprus bulks large in the crotch of Asia Minor, like a huge fist with a lean finger pointing straight at Antioch. Historically, one may imagine, the finger should be crooked a bit more, in perpetual accusation of the Sultan, the degenerate Selim II, whose generals captured the island, impelled in part, at least, by the fact that Selim's favorite wine came from there. Geographically, the promontory marks the line of Cyprus' pre-historic connection with Asia's mainland.

"There, too, reigned the beautiful Queen Catherine Cornaro, adopted daughter of Venice, who, though grief-stricken by her husband's death, struggled against intrigue that the throne might be saved for his unborn child.

"Early came to Cyprus those 'Yankees of the Levant,' the Phoenicians, Sargon, the king of Assyria, who, as Isaiah had prophesied, led the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, also conquered Cyprus. Esarhaddon, the Caesar and Carnegie of Assyria, who left at Nineveh an indexed library of many thousands of clay tablets, received tributes from ten Cyprian kings.

"Pausanias, Benedict Arnold of Sparta, liberated Cyprus from Persian domination, and Evagoras, one of the island kings, hero of the world's first known biography, penned by Isocrates, united the scattered principalities, is the King Arthur of island tradition.

"Thus Cyprus wreaths with composite memories of eastern, Grecian, Roman and even Anglo-Saxon civilization. No less was it a focal point for religions.

"At Kókklia, where certain tides still pile masses of foam along the shore, Aphrodite is supposed to have been born of the waves. Here are ruins of a temple for her worship, where originally fetes were held which, as one writer puts it, 'were the scenes of a too literal worship of Venus,' and where, until recently it was the custom to immerse a maid in honor of the goddess' birth.

"Kouklia is on the site of the ancient Paphos; the Paphos of today was the one-time Neapaphos where St. Paul struck blind the sorcerer, Elymas, and converted Sergius Paulus, the Roman deputy.

"The present day Larnaka is on the site of the Biblical Chittim, whose ships are mentioned by Daniel and whose ivory is referred to by Ezekiel. In Larnaka is the tomb of Lazarus, who, after being raised from the dead, became bishop of the renowned city.

"The area of Cyprus is about equal to that of Delaware and Rhode Island while its total population is about half that of the latter state. Greek of almost classic purity is spoken.

"The people follow agricultural pursuits, along primitive lines, and until recently the famed Cyprian wine had its flavor affected unpleasantly by the use of tarred skins as carriers. Among the other products are grains, vetches, and carobs, the locust beans which John the Baptist is supposed to have eaten while in the wilderness. Marble is quarried, asbestos is found, salt is produced, and there are sponge fisheries, but the copper, from which the island derived its name, has been exhausted."

Is it Possible to Legislate Life and Brains?

Swift & Company is primarily an organization of men, not a collection of brick, mortar, and machinery.

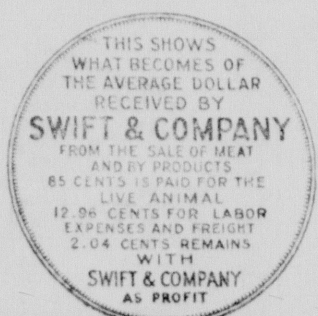

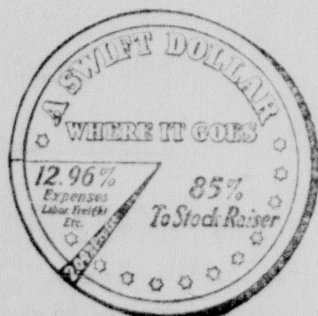

Packing Plants, their equipment and usefulness are only outward symbols of the intelligence, life long experience, and right purpose of the men who compose the organization and of those who direct it.

Will not Government direction of the packing industry, now contemplated by Congress, take over the empty husk of physical property and equipment and sacrifice the initiative, experience and devotion of these men, which is the life itself of the industry?

What legislation, what political adroitness could replace such life and brains, once driven out?

Obituary.

Mrs. Hester Ann Matthews passed away at her home in Compton Monday at 12:30 o'clock, August 4, after a severe illness of only two weeks duration, at the age of 85 years, eight months and four days. This loving mother's life was an ideal one, her very presence radiating happiness, a character who never failed to recognize her Heavenly Father in the beauty of nature and the radiance of his great love in her own heart.

Mrs. Matthews was a faithful member of the Methodist church for nearly fifty years, was loyal to her loved ones and friends and was held in high esteem by the people of the community. The funeral was held at the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. H. White, of Naperville. The floral offerings were pretty in purple and white asters, gladiolus and lilies. A beautiful shower bouquet was presented by Mr. and Mrs. William Geisinger, of Storm Lake, Iowa. The music was most beautifully rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Nangle, of Paw Paw. Interment took place in Malugin Grove cemetery.

Hester Ann Bowles was born Nov. 7, 1833, at Lockport, N. Y. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Bowles, the youngest of seven sisters and two brothers, all having preceded her in the great beyond. Mrs. Matthews parents moved to Michigan when she was quite young. Her marriage to Daniel Carlos Matthews took place at Grand Rapids, Mich., December 25, 1854. To this union were born two children, Remus Emmerson and Mrs. Leola Merriman. Her husband passed away October 23, 1902. Their son was the victim of an accident at Fort Mead, Dakota, August 9, 1879, where he was in the regular army service as a cavalryman. Her one daughter and three grandchildren, Wilbur, Forrest and Hester are the only surviving near relatives. There are three cousins of the departed still living: Mrs. Emma Broadrig, of Grand Rapids, Mich., Miss Sophie Sprague and Mrs. Phoebe Burdick, of Coldwater, Mich.

The following poem was sent to the surviving relatives by Rev. Hetrick, a former pastor:

"Dear Saint in heavenly mansions securely folded,
Safe in God's fostering love,
She joins with rapture in blissful chorus.
Of those bright choirs above.

There where no tears are known,
No pain or sorrow,
She lives forever with her blessed Jesus
The lover of her soul.

In her home a place is vacant,
And the dear ones who remain,
Vainly listen for her footsteps,
Which will never come again.

May they reach the home in glory,
When life's burdens are laid down,
And like our departed sister,
Change earth's cross for Heaven's crown.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank our many friends for their acts of kindness and words of condolence, extended us during the sickness and following the passing away of our dear mother and for the beautiful floral tributes.

Mrs. Leola Merriman and Children, Wilbur, Forrest and Hester.

LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring Back its Color and Lustre with Grandma's Sage Tea Recipe.

Common garden sage brewed into a herby tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR KIDNEYS ACT BADLY

Take tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Drink lots of water.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

DOCTOR TELLS HOW TO DETECT HARMFUL EFFECTS OF TOBACCO

Try These SIMPLE TESTS

New York: Doctor Connor, formerly of Johns Hopkins hospital, says: Many men who smoke, chew or sniff nicotine, and who are seemingly healthy are suffering from progressive organic ailments. Thousands of them would never have been afflicted had it not been for the use of tobacco, and thousands would soon get well if they would only stop the use of tobacco. The chief habit forming principle of tobacco is nicotine, a deadly poison which, when absorbed in the system slowly affects the nerves, membranes, tissues and vital organs of the body. The harmful effect of tobacco varies and depends on circumstances. One will be afflicted with general debility, others with catarrh of the throat, indigestion, constipation, extreme nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of memory, lack of will power, mental confusion, etc. Others may suffer from heart disease, bronchitis, tuberculosis, even cancer or common affliction known as tobacco heart. If you use tobacco in any form you can easily detect the harmful effects by making the following simple tests. Read about one full page from a book. If, in the course of reading your voice becomes muffled, hoarse and indistinct, and you must frequently clear your throat, the chances are that your throat is affected by catarrh and it may be the beginning of more serious trouble. Next, in the morning before taking your usual smoke, walk up three flights of stairs at a regular pace, then stop. If you find that you are out of breath, your heart beat is forced, trembling or irregular, you may be a victim of functional or organic heart trouble. If you feel that you must smoke, chew or sniff to quiet your nerves, you are a slave to the tobacco habit, and are positively poisoning yourself with the deadly drug, nicotine. In either case you have just two alternatives—keep on with the self-poisoning process irrespective of the dangers and suffer the consequences, or give up the habit and escape the dangers. You can overcome the craving and stop the habit in a very short time by using the following inexpensive formula. Go to any drug store and ask for Nicotol tablets, take one tablet after each meal, and in a comparatively short time you will have no desire for tobacco, the craving will have left you. With the nicotine poison out of your system your general health will quickly improve.

Note—When asked about Nicotol tablets, one of our local druggists said: "It is truly a wonderful remedy for the tobacco habit, away ahead of anything we have ever sold before. We are authorized by the manufacturers to refund the money to every dissatisfied customer, and we would not permit the use of our name unless the remedy possessed unusual merit." Nicotol tablets are sold in this city under an iron-clad money-back guarantee by all up-to-date druggists, including Public Drug Co.

UNCERTAINTY IS CAUSE OF HALT IN CORN MARKET

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Aug. 13.—Uncertainty due to agitation over high cost of living and to railroad strike troubles has brought the corn market nearly to a halt. Business today was mainly confined to pit traders, and price changes were narrow and erratic. Scantiness of receipts tended somewhat to strengthen values, especially for the September delivery. Opening quotations, which ranged from 1½¢ off to a like advance, with Sept. 1.91½ to 1.92 and Dec. 1.52 to 1.53, were followed by a slight general decline and then by moderate upturns to above yesterday's finish all around.

Oats were dull and about steady. After opening at 75½¢ decline to 74¢ advance, with Sept. 75½¢ the market sagged somewhat and later scored a fair advance.

Provisions were slightly firmer with hogs. Trading, however, lacked volume. Later the market was bearishly affected by reports that there had been widespread soaking rains which were expected to improve crop prospects. The close was unsettled, ¼¢ net lower to ½¢ advance, with Sept. 1.91½ to 1.91½ and Dec. 1.52½ to 1.52½.
